

David & Goliath

The Philistines gathered their army near the Israelite camp. They had their champion, Goliath with them. Goliath was a giant, and he taunted the Israelites every day, saying, “Bring out your best man to fight against me. If he can defeat me, we will be your servants forever.”

The army was terrified of Goliath, and no man was found suitable to fight against him in battle.

David was the son of Jesse, and he had three brothers who were members of the Israelite army. David was a shepherd, but he frequently visited his brothers at the camp, bringing them the things they needed.

One day, Jesse brought David supplies and said, “Bring these supplies to your brothers at the camp.”

David set out, and when he arrived, he saw Goliath taunting the army, asking for someone to fight him. David approached the men who were standing near him. He said, “What will be done for the man who defeats the giant?”

The men said, “The King will give him great wealth. He will also give him his daughter in marriage.”

David went to King Saul and told him, “Don't worry. I will go and fight Goliath.” Saul tried to argue, but he knew David would go into battle anyway. He tried to give David his armor, but David took it off. “God is with me, and I don't need these things to win.” replied David

He approached Goliath, and he picked up five stones from a nearby stream. “Goliath!” he shouted. “You come against me with the sword, but I have God on my side!” With that, David put a stone in his sling, and he slung it, striking Goliath on his forehead.

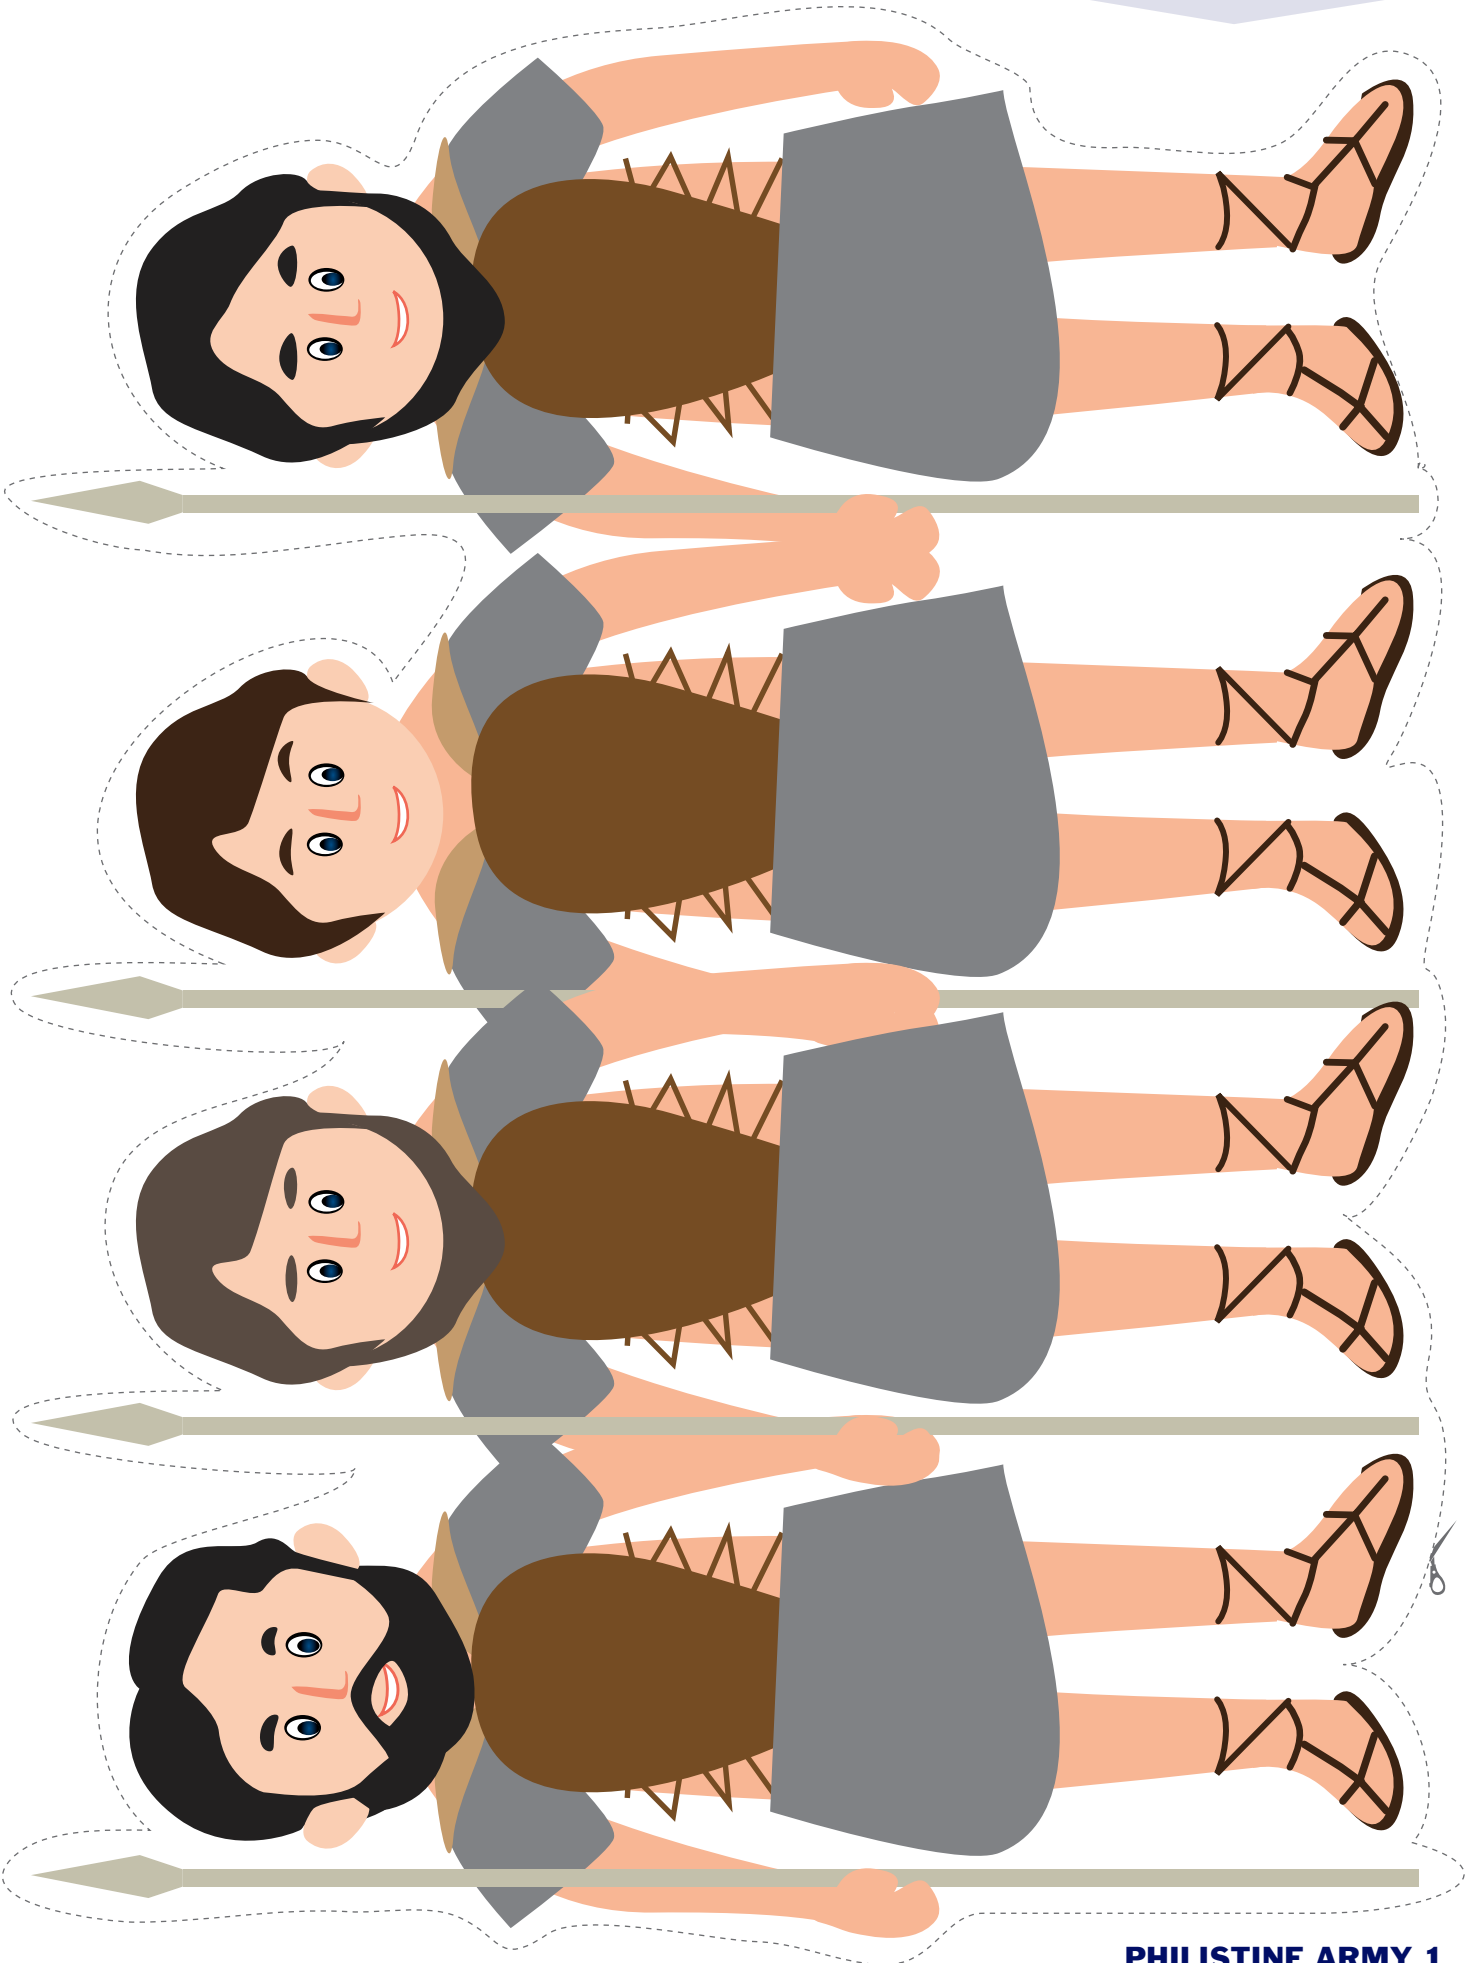

Goliath immediately fell to the ground and died.

David was victorious that day because of his faith in God.
